

THE CALL

A BIWEEKLY PUBLICATION OF ROANOKE ELECTRIC COOPERATIVE

VOL. 3 - Aug. 19, 2015

Making Progress

Success takes root in co-op's forestry program

Roanoke Electric Co-op's innovative sustainable forestry program is making a big difference in the lives of local landowners, as it marks progress in its mission to help them boost incomes and land asset values. Read more

-

Co-op Power

Under scrutiny: EPA's Clean Power Plan

The Environmental Protection Agency's recently released Clean Power Plan could mean big changes for the power industry. What possible impact may these regulations have on co-op member-consumers? Roanoke Electric Co-op has joined forces with other North Carolina co-ops to find out. Read more.

REC Solutions

Harnessing the power of pennies

What a difference a few pennies can make through Operation RoundUp. Why rounding up your electric bill just a few cents each month is adding up the positive change taking place in the lives of community members who need it most. Read more.

Safety Check

Back-to-school safety tips for students

It's back-to-school time for many local students. And as they make their way back to the shores of academia with backpacks in tow, there's a few important safety tips they should also carry along with them. Read more.

Straight Talk!

Making a special connection to the membership

Roanoke Electric Co-op officials recently wrapped up a series of special meetings throughout the community, delivering the message personally that they are responding to the membership's call to action on major pocketbook issues. Read more

Mark Your Calendars!

Coming Soon: Roanoke Electric's Annual Meeting

Roanoke Electric Co-op's Annual Meeting is set for August 22 at Hertford High School, and all members are invited. To learn more about what's on tap for this year's special event, read more .

Contact: Brittany Tann, Editor

Roanoke Electric Cooperative, Aulander, NC

252-209-2236

www.roanokeelectric.com

Like me on Facebook

Follow me on twitter

View my profile on Linked in