

THE CALL

A BIWEEKLY PUBLICATION OF ROANOKE ELECTRIC COOPERATIVE

PENNY POWER

So where did that money go?

If you are among the Roanoke Electric Co-op member-owners, who chose to roundup their monthly electric bill, you have something to feel really pleased about. The co-op recently announced some good news about the big impact your spare change will be making in our community. Read more.

BLOOD DRIVE

How you can give the gift of life

How would you like to give a gift so special this holiday season that it can literally save a life? Roanoke Electric Co-op is sponsoring a blood drive, 10 a.m. - 3 p.m., Nov. 17 at its Ahoskie headquarters. By participating, not only will you feel good about helping someone, you may also walk away with a special gift to call your own. Read more.

MYTH BUSTERS

Debunking popular energy myths

Are you prone to opening the hot oven repeatedly to marvel at that homemade holiday dish everyone raves about? You may want to think about taming that urge to peak after reading about these common energy myths and their costly realities. Check it out.

WHAT A TRIP!

Coming soon: 2017 Youth Tour!

How does a week-long, all-expense paid trip to the nation's capital next year sound? Sound too good to be true? For local high school juniors, the road to Washington, D.C., may very well begin by meeting this important upcoming deadline. Read more.

FALL BACK

Reminder: Daylight Saving Time

It's that time of year again, when Daylight Saving Time officially comes to an end on Nov. 6 at 2 a.m. Please remember to set your clocks back one hour this Sunday. And in keeping with this long-time tradition, it's a good time to remember to change your air filters, as well as batteries in smoke alarms and carbon-monoxide detectors.

Brittany Tann, Editor | Roanoke Electric Cooperative | 252-209-2236 |
socialmedia@roanokeelectric.com | www.roanokeelectric.com

Visit Our Website