Today's Tip

Lessons in electrical safety never get old

"Don't put your fingers in the socket." "Don't put metal objects in appliances." "Don't mix water and electricity" These are some of the simple, but life-saving safety warnings that bear repeating when it comes to children and electrical safety. Read more.

Checks, Anyone?

We may have something belonging to you

First, the good news: Roanoke Electric Co-op recently mailed member-owners their capital credits checks. Then, this happened: Many of them were returned to sender by the U.S. Postal Service. However, not all is lost and you can still claim your check. To see if your's was returned and to update your contact information, please call 252-209-2236 or 1-800-433-2236.
